

Open position: Student assistant

The Health Psychology Group (Director: Univ.-Prof. Dr. Laura M. König) is seeking to fill the position of a student assistant in the newly established Research Platform AI-Powered Personalized Nutrition for well-being and disease prevention (AIPN) as of 1 May 2026. The position is initially limited until 30 September, 2026, with the aim of further extension. The working hours are 10 hours/ week.

More information on the Research Platform can be found at <https://aipn.univie.ac.at/>.

Tasks:

- Supporting the preparation and implementation of systematic literature reviews and quantitative and qualitative empirical studies within the research platform (e.g., literature searches, preparing and conducting data collection). This may also involve contributing to data analysis and scientific manuscripts.
- Supporting the project management in administrative tasks (e.g., minute-taking) and in science communication

Profile:

- Interest in interdisciplinary research at the interface of systems biology, nutritional science, medicine, psychology and machine learning
- Enrolled in a Bachelor or Master programme in psychology, nutritional science, computer science or related fields
- Strong academic performance
- Excellent English skills; excellent German skills are desirable
- Additionally desirable are good knowledge of the Microsoft Office suite, data collection tools (e.g., SoSci Survey, m-Path), software for analysing quantitative (e.g., R, SPSS, JASP) or qualitative (e.g., MAXQDA) data

We offer:

- Integration into the Health Psychology Group and the Research AI-Powered Personalized Nutrition for well-being and disease prevention (AIPN) for professional development
- Collaborations in an interdisciplinary research team of nutrition scientists, medical experts, metabolomics and microbiome researchers, psychologists, and specialists in artificial intelligence

Application:

Please send your application (including a cover letter, CV, and transcript of records) to gesundheit.psychologie@univie.ac.at by 15 March, 2026. For inquiries, please contact Univ.-Prof. Dr. Laura M. König (laura.koenig@univie.ac.at).
